In Memoriam

GRIE—In loving memory of a dear wife and mother, Gertrude Grie, who passed away on February 10, 1944. God knew she had to go. Her heart was too hard to climb. She closed her weary eyes. Her joy to make some other smile. Her love to give to others. Her smile to bring some tears. Her gentle ways to comfort others. I know she will be "Well done" again.

—Ever remembered by husband and children, Elsie, Della, Peggy and Marlene.

ORM—In loving memory of a dear son, John, who passed away on February 10, 1944. God knew he had to go. His heart was too hard to climb. He closed his weary eyes. His joy to make some other smile. His love to give to others. His smile to bring some tears. His gentle ways to comfort others. He died in his sleep and with farwells unspoken.

—Ever missed and ever remembered by the Shaw family.

MURRAY—In loving memory of William Allan Murray, who was lost with H.M.C.S. "Spartan" on February 10, 1944. Just when your life was brightest, just when your days were few, You were called from this world of ours.

To a home of eternal rest. —Ever remembered by Mother, Jean and Margaret.

SYKES—In loving memory of my dear son Gerald, who died in France, February 10, 1944. There is no death.—From Mother, brothers and sisters.
